TIME PERIODS FOR FILING A REPLY TO THIS NOTICE:

1. Applicant is given no new time period if the non-compliant amendment is an after-final amendment or an amendment filed after allowance. If applicant wishes to resubmit the non-compliant after-final amendment with corrections, the entire corrected amendment must be resubmitted.
2. Applicant is given one month, or thirty (30) days, whichever is longer, from the mail date of this notice to supply the correction, if the non-compliant amendment is one of the following: a preliminary amendment, a non-final amendment (including a submission for a request for continued examination (RCE) under 37 CFR 1.114), a supplemental amendment filed within a suspension period under 37 CFR 1.103(a) or (c), and an amendment filed in response to a Quayle action. Continuation of 4(e) Other: The amendment filed 1 March 2005 is not compliant with the requirements of 1.121(c), which requires that each amendment document that includes a change to an existing claim, cancellation of an existing claim or addition of a new claim, must include a complete listing of all claims ever presented and all claims being currently amended in an amendment paper shall be presented in the claim listing, indicate a status of "currently amended," and be submitted with markings to indicate the changes that have been made relative to the immediate prior version of the claims. Specifically, the 1 March preliminary amendment presents the claims as amended relative to the claims as originally filed in parent international application. However, as the claims originally filed in the international application were replaced by an Article 34 amendment the claim identifiers and markings made in the 1 March claim listing are not consistent with the claims as presented in the immediately prior version of the claims (i.e., the claims of the Article 34 amendment). As a result, claims presented in the international application and originally presented in the instant application have effectively been cancelled without the proper indication in the claim listing resulting in claims that are improperly numbered and inaccurate markings to show changes made to the claims. In response to this Office letter, Applicant must submit a substitute claim listing that contains the claim amendments as presented in the 1 March preliminary amendment but including the status of all of the claims ever presented in the application and showing the changes made relative to the immediately prior version of the claims (i.e., the claims of the Article 34 amendment.)
